THE CONTEST COL'M

By R. EARTHART, Brisbane, Calif.

A Merry Xmas, folks—everybody and “you will know, that I am, there.”

It's just the finest thing how Xmas makes “Home Sweet Home.” How each little family gangs up at home. Around the old fireside or around the old kitchen stove or even just around. I will not attempt to describe your first Xmas—that has been attempted by greater writers than I. But if you will pause for just five minutes on Xmas Eve., go back to the memory of your first Xmas tree, you will realize why children shall lead on forever and why is “Home Sweet Home.” And folks, I'll be with you Xmas Eve.

And now, folks, if you have just a little bit of time to grab a little money—get busy on the Sun Headgear Contest, as set forth in Dec. 9th issue. “Don't tell me you can't use the prize money represented by $2.50, $1.00 and also 50 cents—that's the three prizes for the three most nearly correct answers. Use coupon below, or a copy thereof, and drop in Post office or in letter box in front of Sun office.

Don't you think the Garden Club trophy is a dandy? Well, get busy and let the Club know what you have done in the Garden this year:

A WORD FROM 'DICK' EARTHART

Well, the All-Brisbane Xmas Tree arrived on time, stays with us a few days—to live in our memory as Brisbane's Biggest Party.

All Brisbane was there, elbowing for a “look see.” Standing room was at a premium. The program was just great—a great credit to our dramatic members—and the stunts were noisily received by the children and the grownups.

Elaine Fredericks, Miss Coffin, and Messrs. Garke, Amos Kinney, Richards, Trafford, Chief Schmidt, Terry, Lamont, Whittaker, Blair, Netzer, Baker, John Grigsby, Tidball, Chas. Goss and Richard Earhart. Special thanks are due the Social Club, the News-Bulletin, the Brisbane Sun and Mr. Arthur Annis, for the wholesome manner in which the work of the committee has been assisted to a “happy landing.”

The All-Brisbane Xmas Tree Committee was organized less than 30 days ago at the behest of the Parent-Teacher Association. It is composed of delegate members from the Parent-Teachers, the Veterans, the Social Club, The Voters League, The Catholic Social Club, The Firemen, The Chiselers Club, and The Garden Club.

The following officers were chosen: Mrs. E. Fredericks, general chairman; Mrs. A. Gledhill, secretary; Mrs. H. V. Smith, treasurer. The other members of the committee are: Mrs. Chas. Whatford, Mrs. C. Knaus, Mrs. J. Kinney, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. J. W. Wheeler, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Minnick, Mrs. Igoo, Elanore Fredericks, Mrs. John.

To the subscribers to our fund of nearly $110, the children thank you and the committee is grateful, and I feel personally in your debt.

A MERRY, MERRY CHRISTMAS to all, and a VERY, VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR!

- RICHARD EARTHART.

A birthday surprise party was carried out on Thursday, Dec. 21st, for Mrs. Fred Coffin, at which cards, games and a big feed were features. Those present were: Mesdames and Messrs. Fred Coffin, Van Kirk, O. B. Ramsey, Lymmus, O. J. Williams and son; Mrs. C. Coffin and Mrs. Lurla Standart.

The 1933rd anniversary of Christ's Mass was celebrated on last Tuesday evening, with a tree for the children, with gifts and sweets, by the Catholic Social Club. The affair was held at Mrs. Canter's residence and was participated in by over 50 Catholic children.

A very interesting and educational trip was enjoyed on Tuesday of this week, when the Misses Bousset, Chapman and Storti, teachers, escorted ten pupils of the Fourth grade to Mission Dolores in San Francisco.

Our local school closed Friday, December 22nd, for the holidays, and will reopen on Monday, January 3rd.

Mr. Gull of Alleri's Market, was pleased to donate a ham toward the kiddies' Christmas, which was raffled at the Voters League card party on Dec. 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lamont are spending the holidays with Mrs. Lamont's daughter, Mrs. Hausmann, at Camp Meeker.

Jack Kinney, home for the holidays, reports his work in Sonoma County progressing nicely, and the two houses he is building are nearing completion. He will return there on Tuesday, December 26th.

Mrs. O. J. Williams writes to the Contest Editor: "Could it be 'A Merry Xmas for Brisbane,' that Dick is thinking of mostly these days?" Well, we shall see what we shall see. What do the rest of you think—read your last week's paper closely.

REPORT OF CHIEF OF FIRE REPARTMENT

Dec. 14—Automobile fire at Mazzetti's Gas Station, at 4 p. m. Alarm by Fireman W. Phillips. Slight damage to car.

Dec. 16—False Alarm, 1 p. m. Capt. P. Pergeaux answered. Bell was sounded by Boys—J. Carroll and W. Wetzel, of San Francisco.

Dec. 20—False Alarm—Bell was sounded at 11 p. m. Chief investigated. Nobody at bell.

WARNING—Any person caught turning in a false alarm will be prosecuted. It is a dangerous and sometimes very costly trick to play.

The Fire Department answered an average of one a month in the past four months.

Dec. 18—On entering his driveway at Klamath and Visitation, Mr. J. Carsellas hit the side bank of his runway and his car went over on its side, cramping him in. With the aid of men coming home from work and neighbors, he was removed and then taken to South City Hospital by Fireman E. Unger and Chief Schmidt. Was treated for injuries to back of head and neck, and intoxication.

Firemen's billboard at Highway was knocked down, and witnessed by Brisbane people at time, who stated some car hit sign before it turned over.

F. SCHMIDT,
Chief Brisbane Vol. Fire Dept.

December 21, 1933.

Brisbane Sun.

Dear Editor—I think it's about time for the Taxpayers of Brisbane to put a sign at the entrance to the tract reading, "Unincorporated." If we don't, someone may get hurt or killed in the tract and bring suit against the County, in which case penalties would be assessed against the tract, and it would be up to the taxpayers to pay for it. To my mind this should be attended to as speedily as possible.

Another matter urgent to our people. We should have some highway protection on Sundays and holidays, so autos can get in and out of Brisbane without taking a chance of getting hit, as we have had several serious accidents at the entrance to the tract, with some killed. There have been at least ten accidents within 300 feet in either direction.

Very truly yours,

P. A. LYONS.

'T FLOATS'

By IVORY

That's what I call getting the "breaks," said Gledhill, as the transmission fell out of his car.

Mr. Zabek says the day after Christmas is the shortest day of the year—everybody is short.

Do You Know—that the average house contains 42 pairs of hinges?

And Mrs. Radoff says you can get tighter on Scots.

Mon E. Hull—How do you get these wonderful biscuits, dearie?

The Missus—I mix the dough with experience, darling.

'BRISBANE'

By MARY SAILOR (15)

There is only one place for me to stay—

And it's not far from a beautiful bay.

Where the hills make an enchanting scene

And grass is always growing green.

It's just a little growing town.

Where people never turn you down.

'Cause all the people are so good and kind.

And would give you their last shirt all the time.

And this place all around is known As the place that we can call real home.

Don't be afraid to live there—it's tame—

And the name of this cheerful spot is Brisbane.

BOY SCOUTS

By CHARLES GOSS,

A letter from New York headquarters of the Scouts has started the clearing up of the charter matter, and some action will be taken after the first of the year. So now the boys can go on and do a lot more of the Scout work than has been done to date.

The Saturday morning meeting this week is postponed on account of the Christmas excitement in the air, and the absence of some of the Scouts on good times elsewhere.

The Cub meeting is postponed on account of the All-Brisbane Christmas Tree being held on their meeting night, but be sure to be present at the next meeting.

We are sorry to announce that Mr. Munday has resigned his post as Scoutmaster, but glad to state that Mr. Morefield, another good man, has been induced to take the position. Mr. Munday has done a lot for the boys, but found his time was too limited to continue. Mr. Oliver Johnson has found it necessary to relinquish his work with the Cubs, as employment has picked up. We regret to lose him, and have our eyes peeled for a worthy successor to this post. The thanks of the boys go with each of these men who have loyally done their bit while they were officials.

The heralded football game will take place at Brisbane in the lot next to Drug Store, on Tuesday, December 26th, and we hope all Brisbane will turn out and root for us, as the visitors are bringing some loyal boosters for their side. This game may develop into an annual event for the two teams, so let's hope the best team wins.

Among others, Troop 76 is sending the following personnel: Gomez, le; Kurtz, lt; Dorigo, lg; Gomez, c; DeVincenzi, rg; Sorensen, rt; Henderson, re; Gilbride, qb; Menconi, lb; DeVincenzi, re.

Some of the local boys participating are: Strausburger, Grigsby, Altemand, G. Smith, R. Smith, Chas. Goss, Arthurs, McIntosh, Unger and Johnson. Positions are being assigned, and practice events have been taking place.
